

Corning Optical Communications RF LLC

1957

Gilbert Engineering was founded in Arizona

1990

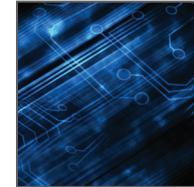

Created the second generation push-on connector, GPPO®

2000

Corning Incorporated acquired Gilbert Engineering

2005

Gilbert Engineering was integrated into Corning Optical Communications

2016

Invested in technology team to enhance R&D capabilities

1984

Developed the first push-on microwave connector, GPO®

1992

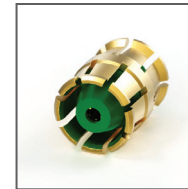

Oak Industries acquired Gilbert Engineering

2003

Created the third generation push-on connector, G3PO™

2010

Created the fourth generation push-on connector, G4PO™