

Important Product Change Notice

Corning Life Sciences announces changes to our vent cap appearance from a multi-circle design (left) to a concentric circle design (right). The new design has the same cap and membrane material as the old style. Vent cap color will continue to be Corning orange.

Corning® flasks will continue to feature:

- ▶ CORNING name
- ▶ Printed part number and specific lot number
- ▶ Orange vent cap with a 0.2 µm pore hydrophobic membrane

The chart below lists the products with the new cap design and current ordering information. Call your local sales office or sales representative for further details.
