

CORNING

First-Quarter 2020 Highlights

Keeping Corning Strong While Managing Through Current Challenges

Delivered Solid First-Quarter 2020 Financial Results While Responding to COVID-19

$2.5B
in core sales

$177M
in core net income

$0.20
in core EPS

“We’ve built Corning to survive difficult circumstances – across three centuries, our people have persevered and succeeded through world wars, natural disasters and economic catastrophes. We are confident in our ability to manage through the current challenges while maintaining our financial strength and growth prospects.”

- Wendell P. Weeks, chairman and chief executive officer